

ONE NEW CASE OF DIPHTHERIA FOUND

Epidemic is Improving, However, as
Several Families Are Released
From Quarantine

MORE CASES ARE EXPECTED

Health Board is Having Little
Trouble Enforcing Regulations
2 Cases Scarlet Fever

Red Cross Headquarters Closed Due To Epidemic

Red Cross headquarters were closed indefinitely today because of the epidemic of diphtheria. This step has been considered for several days because it was feared diphtheria germs might be transmitted to garments being made there. Precautionary steps have been taken before this, but it was decided closing would be the best policy.

One new case of diphtheria and two cases of scarlet fever were reported by the health board today. The situation otherwise is unchanged. The new case of diphtheria is in the family of Charles Luckner, 903 North Willow street, Vivian, being the victim. The scarlet fever is confined to the Handy family, 834 West Tenth street.

If anything the diphtheria epidemic is improved. Several families under quarantine have been released, the patients having recovered and no new cases developing. From the large number that have been exposed, however, the health board expects additional cases, but at the same time declares the situation is satisfactory. The epidemic has improved even in the short time the schools have been closed and this step is now having its effect.

At least five families have been released in the last few days from the quarantine and this alone is a good sign that the epidemic is abating. The two cases of scarlet fever should cause no alarm as there have been several cases and no epidemic is feared. One or two cases of scarlet fever are to be found here almost the year around.

The health board is having little trouble enforcing its regulations regarding the quarantine. The public has been co-operating nicely and only one or two cases have been found of persons under 21 years of age attempting to gain admission to the picture shows. It now appears that the schools will be able to open one week from Monday as originally planned.

The health board stated today that none of the diphtheria patients was in a critical condition and unless, some unforeseen complications develop no additional deaths are expected.

Every precaution has been taken at Red Cross headquarters to prevent spreading germs of diphtheria among garments being made for soldiers. No children are allowed in the headquarters and no yarn is being sent out for knitting as long as the quarantine regulations are in effect. There has been some talk of closing the headquarters and this step was finally decided on today.

AUSTRALIAN TROOPS WIN

Force Way Nearer Today to Passchendaele, the Key-Point.

By WILLIAM PHILIPS SIMMS

With the British Army in Flanders, Oct. 13.—Australian troops today forced their way still nearer to Passchendaele, key-point to the right of that place. In their new position the men repulsed German counter attacks with the greatest ease. The assaulting enemy troops did not even reach the British line.

URGES MORE VIGOR PUT IN CAMPAIGN

Telegram From Chicago Today Says
It Is Vitrally Important in Liberty Bond Work

MORE ADVERTISING NEEDED

No Report Received Today Regarding Subscriptions, But One Is Expected Monday

No report was received today from the seventh district federal reserve bank district headquarters at Chicago concerning Indiana counties subscriptions to the Liberty Loan, though one was expected. It was not known whether any great gain in subscriptions was made here on account of the special drive this week until the next report is received. The chairman of the bankers organization believes that a report will be forthcoming Monday.

Plans are being made to enlist a woman's committee in the canvassing. A. L. Gary, chairman of the County Council of Defense, has received fifty blanks to be used by such a committee. They are blue in color and are different from the regular blanks used. The question of woman's committee working in the Liberty Loan campaign will be taken up with Mrs. A. L. Stewart, chairman of the woman's division of the county defense body.

Telegrams were received today by the chairman of the bankers association and the chairman of the publicity committee saying that it was "vitrally important for success of Liberty Bond campaign that vigorous advertising program be followed in every community." The offer made in the telegram for mounted stereotypes was accepted and they will be used as local advertisements. It is felt that a more vigorous advertising campaign is needed because of the poor showing made the first ten days of the bond sale campaign.

Lieutenant Governor Edgar D. Bush, acting for Governor Goodrich, has issued a proclamation urging that Liberty Loan Sunday be observed in Indiana churches tomorrow. The diphtheria epidemic makes impossible such a celebration here because only one church service will be held. The publicity committee of this federal reserve district set a week from Sunday as Liberty Loan Sunday and it is possible that the special day will be observed here then. The question will be taken up with Dr. D. Ira Lambert, president of the ministerial association. It is requested that ministers preach special sermons, that the national anthem be sung at the same hour in all churches and that church bells be tolled simultaneously for ten minutes.

It is not likely that Boy Scouts will be used in the campaign here, as they were for the first Liberty Loan. The fact that they are attending school makes it next to impossible for them to participate. They did valiant service in the first Liberty Loan, selling $23,238,250 worth of Liberty Bonds to 139,645 people all over the United States.

CALLS GRAND JURY NEXT WEDNESDAY

Judge Sparks Orders Body to Report
but Nature of Investigation is Not Disclosed

CARROLL DIVORCE SUIT UP

Court Hears Exceptions to Final
Report in Riley Stewart Estate Filed by Alleged Son

The grand jury was ordered into session for next Wednesday by Judge Sparks today. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court and the nature of the things to be investigated have not been disclosed.

The members of the grand jury are as follows: J. B. McCarty, Rushville township; Franklin P. Wagoner, Orange; Thomas L. Gilson, Center; Jesse L. Morris, Union; Adam O. Gordon, Washington and Williard P. King, Noble.

The court this morning heard the exceptions to the final report of William O. Stewart, administrator of the estate of the late Riley Stewart, filed by Sanford Heaton as guardian for Earl Stewart. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement. Earl Stewart claims to be the legitimate son of the late Riley Stewart and claims a share in the final settlement, which was not given under the final report filed by the administrator.

The complaint alleged that Riley Stewart recognized the boy as his son and should the exceptions be sustained he would get his one-third interest in the estate.

The divorce suit of Knowles Carroll against Elizabeth Carroll was heard by the court and continued for further evidence. The defendant failed to appear and the prosecutor appeared.

Pending the final outcome of her divorce suit against Harry Headlee, Lucy Headlee will receive the sum of $3 a week for support under an order of court issued after hearing the testimony on the allowance question.

PROOF OF WANING U-BOAT CAMPAIGN

German Minister Von Cappel's Resignation in Interpreted This Way in London

IS ELAMED FOR NAVY MUTINY

One Reason For Open Outbreak Was Policy of Forcing Sailors to Work on Submarines

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 13.—The strongest proof that Germany's submarine campaign is waning, was London's interpretation today of the news of German Minister Von Cappel's resignation.

The direct cause of his retirement was undoubtedly his reichstag revelations of the German mutiny. He was blamed for permitting conditions to exist under which such mutiny could grow and he came in for the radicals' displeasure when he joined what appeared the liberal element in bolstering Michaelis' fight for Vice-chancellor Helfferich.

Other evidences have been trickling out of Germany indicating a gradual realization by the public of the failure of the submarine warfare despite glowing optimism of government heads. One reason for the open outbreak at Wilhelmshaven according to one report, was the naval policy of forcing sailors to work on submarines.

One dispatch asserted that a number who refused this duty had been severely punished. That this spirit of mutiny is still prevalent, is seen in another report of the execution of four or five men for the same of fense. Heavy increases in pay and leaves of absence and special food while on shore, all offered for submarine duty, have failed to attract U-boat crews.

Kaiser Wilhelm is not expected back in Berlin before the latter part of October and some German dispatches indicate that Von Cappel's resignation as well as the future of Chancellor Michaelis would not be decided until then.

REPRISALS INDICATED

London, October 13.—The morning papers suggest that the government is ready to begin carrying out reprisal air raids on Germany. This belief is based on the assignment of the director-general of military aeronautics to special work and the sending of director of air organization for the army abroad.

Senator James E. Watson will bring greetings from their home state to the selected men of Indiana at Camp Taylor, Ky., at a reception for Hoosiers at the Y. M. C. Arrangements were made for Senator Watson to speak at a reception to Indiana men Thursday night, October 4, but he could not be present because congress was still in session.

GIANTS LEAD BY 2 POINTS IN SIXTH

Score Two in First and Two in Fourth While White Sox Fail to Make Marker Until Third

RUSSELL IS SENT TO DUGOUT

Is Relieved by Cicotte in First Inning After One Run Had Been Made Against Him.

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—The Giants were leading by two markers at the end of the sixth inning this afternoon and their playing indicated that they would hold their lead the remaining three innings. The New York club batters got to Russell early in the game and he was replaced by Cicotte in the first frame after one Giant runner had crossed the plate.

New York ---- 2 0 0 2 0 0
Chicago ----- 0 0 1 0 0 1

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—With chilly breezes sweeping across the field the White Sox and Giants started the fifth game of the worlds series. Overcoats and furs took the place of bunting and flags. Russell started pitching for Chicago with Schalk catching. Sallee and Fariden was the battery for New York. Russell was relieved by Cicotte in the first frame after one run had counted. The crowd stood and shivered and shook their feet in the frigid breeze while the Giants vent through a stiff batting practice after taking the field at 12:20.

It seemed certain that the crowd would not approach the 32,000 mark set in the first two games. Shortly before the game it was doubtful if half that number were in the park. The crowd showed very little pep as the two teams warmed up.

The Sox kept near their bench while the Giants batted. If a seventh game is necessary it will be played in New York. This was decided today when a coin was flipped and Comiskey called "tails." When the coin stopped rolling "heads" was up.

FIRST INNING

New York—Burns walked, Herzog singled to center, Burns going to third. Kauff doubled to right, scoring Burns. Herzog went to third. Cicotte replaced Russell on the mound. Herzog was out at the plate on Zimmerman's grounder. Weaver to Schalk. Kauff was out at the plate, McMullen to Schalk on Fletcher's grounder. Zimmerman went to second and Fletcher safe at first. Robertson singled to center scoring Zimmerman. Holke out, Weaver to Gandil. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Chicago—J. Collins popped to Zimmerman. McMullen walked. E. Collins singled to center. Jackson flied to Burns. Felsch safe on Fletcher's error, McMullen going to third. Gandil popped to Holke. No runs, one hit and one error.

SECOND INNING

New York—Rariden singled to center. Sallee out. Herzog out

FAIL TO INCREASE SINGLE RISK LIMIT

Rush County Farmers Insurance Company Stockholders Vote Against the Proposal

ANNUAL MEETING HELD TODAY

W. A. Alexander Replaces John Gartin as President—In Fine Financial Condition.

Efforts to raise the amount of a single risk from $4,000 to $6,000 failed this afternoon at the annual meeting of the Rush County Farmers' Insurance company. Because of the high price of farm products an attempt was made to amend the constitution so that the company could insure up to $6,000 instead of the present limit of $4,000. The motion was lost by a vote of 35 to 25, it requiring a two-thirds vote of the membership present.

John W. Gartin was replaced as president for the ensuing year by William A. Alexander and the other officers were re-elected. Thomas A. Jones is vice-president and L. R. Webb, actuary. The auditing committee is composed of Oliver M. Siler, Joe Pike and Ed Lowden.

An attempt was made to re-elect the old officers by acclamation but this was lost and then the stockholders proceeded to elect separately. Mr. Alexander's name was placed in nomination as opposed to Gartin and before the ballot was taken Mr. Gartin withdrew. There was no opposition to the other officers.

The constitution was amended so that in the future church property outside of any incorporated town can be insured. Heretofore the state law would not permit this but the last legislature defined the things a mutual insurance company can insure and included church buildings and contents. Taking advantage of the law, the association by an almost unanimous vote decided to amend the constitution so as to include churches.

The financial report showed the company in excellent financial condition. A crowd of nearly one hundred attended the meeting.

The report of the actuary, L. R. Webb revealed the remarkable growth of the company. Ten years ago the company was in debt $7,500 and now it has almost this amount on the other side of the ledger. For the year just closing the company carried a total of $4,741,321 in insurance.

This is a gain of $33,151 over last year. During the year a net gain of 73 in membership was made, showing that the company is still growing. During the year 153 new members were added to the organization and a loss of eighty caused by death, withdrawals and removals brought the net membership gain to 73. The total membership was shown to be 2,348.

The receipts for the year as shown by the actuary's report were $9,910.12 and the expenditures $3,148.49, showing a balance on hand of $6,761.63.

This was the forty-second annual meeting of the insurance company. Every year the company has shown a steady increase in the amount of insurance carried. At the fortieth annual meeting a gain of $116,556 was shown and at the forty-first meeting the gain in insurance over the previous year was $144,094.

The losses for the year were about down to the minimum, the total amount being paid out for losses and the majority were caused by lightning. The largest single claim was paid to Elsworth Kiser for the loss of a clover huller. Mr. Kiser received $350 on Oct. 28, 1916. The next highest loss was paid to Jesse A. Leisure when he received $242.86 when fire damaged a house on his farm. The report shows

Frolicking, Intoxication and Dancing Banned by Church

Minutes of Little Flatrock Baptist Church of 1821 to 1830, Which Have Been Placed in Public Library, Disclose Puritanical Customs and Beliefs of Church of That Day. Notation Says Congregation Finally Decides to Invite Others to Sit With Them.

The puritanical customs and beliefs of the early church in Rush county are disclosed by the minutes of the Little Flatrock Baptist church from the years 1821 to 1830, contained in a little notebook yellow with age, a county relic which has been placed in the public library. The minutes were sent here from Des Moines, Iowa, by S. C. Conner, a former Rushville man.

Among other things, the church minutes reveal that "churching," a man or woman was not an uncommon thing and that drunkenness was not looked upon as lightly as it is these days—not habitual drunkenness, but the occasional "spree." They also show the narrowness of the church of a century ago by the notation of a vote by the church members to allow members of other congregations to sit with them at worship.

The minutes of November 17,

1828 say that "Brother Henry Line laid a complaint against himself for the sin of intoxication and gave satisfaction. The church agrees to bear with the brother."

A notation in the minutes of January 19, 1828 say that Charles S. Catt laid in a complaint against himself for mixing tallow with beeswax and selling it to Mr.—(the name is not written legibly) as good beeswax. The church took some action, but what was done can not be read in the minutes because of their age.

One record shows that a man was excommunicated for intemperance and using profane language. One paragraph of the minutes for the August, 1827, meeting says: "A charge brought against Brother James Harrison for intemperance and using profane language. After mature deliberation it is thought

BANKER LIVES IN TENEMENT HOUSE

Not Because He Can't Afford Better But to be Closer to His Business

CAME FROM COLUMBUS, OHIO

Rented Two Rooms and Refitted Them in Keeping With His Station in Life

(By United Press.)

New York, Oct. 13.—Columbus, O., has the distinction of giving to New York the only man in the entire length and breadth of Manhattan Island who lives below Fulton street. He is Henry L. Doherty, banker of No. 60 Wall street.

Doherty, who started out in life as a newsboy on the streets of Columbus and who now is a millionaire banker and owner of some 200 public utilities, has a unique home at the corner of Bridge and Broad streets on the lower tip of Manhattan Island.

Across the street is the old Franco Tavern where Washington bade farewell to his troops. To the south is the New York harbor with its myriads of ferryboats.

Doherty, an indefatigable worker, formerly had a home on Riverside Drive but found that after working until past midnight it was a long trip home in his automobile. So he looked about for a place in the neighborhood where he could sleep until the next day. There are no hotels below Fulton street—save perhaps for a few longshoremen resorts, so at last Doherty discovered an apartment in the tenement house at Bridge and Broad streets.

He rented two rooms and had them refitted in keeping with his station in life. The lower end of the island after midnight is practically deserted, only the staccato beat of the nightwatchman's stick and the chimes of Trinity break the still air. Doherty found he could sleep better away from the noise and after two weeks rented the entire second floor of the building. There are large living rooms, guest rooms and one music room in which is installed a large pipe organ where Doherty amuses himself after a hard night's work on the stupendous details of his enormous business.

The apartment is lighted by a system of flood lighting that gives added charm to the rare bric-a-brac and costly fittings. A negro servant acts as cook and general factotum. There is no elevator but the visitor after a walk up a tiny pair of stairs finds himself in one of the most tastefully decorated and quiet homes in the city.

NOT WORK OF GERMAN SPIES

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—That German sympathizers have not been responsible for many cases of cattle and other stock poisoning over the state is the opinion of Dr. L. E. Northrup, state veterinarian today, following a thorough investigation into all cases reported by his assistants.

In the majority of cases, local quarrels and jealousy were found to be the reasons for the trouble, according to Northrup.

One case was reported where Paris-green had been buried near the surface of the ground so that pigs could root it up and would probably cause their death.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ill and all. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains these mighty strength-producing agents, leicithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine out of ten a run-down condition, sallow, pale complexions that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of leicithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a leicithin and iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle. This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get in nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks. No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts in you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life to your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone. Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist's or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price. The Santal Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

FARMERS DISCUSS BEEF PRODUCTION

Are Addressed by W. F. Franklin, Government Representative, And Rush County Feeders.

URGED TO BUY GOOD CATTLE

Following the meeting of the Rush County Farmers Insurance company this afternoon, a meeting was held in the interest of increasing beef production in the county and using up fodder, much of which is usually wasted. The call for the meeting was issued by the County Council of Defense and A. L. Gary, chairman of the council presided. W. F. Franklin of Danville, who is here as a representative of the United States department of agriculture in the interest of better seed corn, spoke briefly and S. H. Trabue, a local stock buyer, and other Rush county men spoke.

While Mr. Franklin is in Rush county and will remain all of next week and possibly longer, to get the farmers to select good seed corn for next year's crop, he discussed beef production in his talk because that was the purpose of the meeting. He said the first essential in feeding cattle was to get stock. He advised that a man of the community who had a long experience in feeding be selected to select feeding cattle if any farmer wanted to buy any.

CAMP TAYLOR GIVES UP 8,000

(By United Press.) Washington, Oct. 13—Transfers of men in the national army and national guard camps to bring the guard companies to full strength by taking drafted men were approved today by the war department.

Practically every section of the country is affected. The details of the transportation are left to the local commanders.

The state quotas in all instances will be determined on bases of congressional representation. The men will be called when accommodations are ready at their new camps.

Camp Pike at Little Rock, Ark., receives 2,000 whites from Camp Taylor. Camp Taylor also gives up 6,000 men from the Indiana and Kentucky quotas to fill up the 38th Army division at Hattiesburg.

INDIANA MAY ACT IN COAL SHORTAGE

Unless Fuel Administrator is Appointed by First of Week, State Likely to Take Hand

SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Some action by the state authorities, probably centering in the public service commission, and the Governor's office, may be taken to relieve the serious coal shortage conditions in the state, unless the federal fuel administration appoints a federal coal director in Indiana by the first of next week.

Will G. Irwin, of Columbus, has been recommended to the federal authorities for weeks as a splendid man to handle the coal problems of Indiana, and an organization under which the fuel problems of the state might be worked out to best advantage, had been worked out for some time, awaiting the appointment of a federal official to take charge of the work. Why the appointment in Indiana has been delayed, when coal directors in many other states have been named, is not known.

It is understood that some plan may be adopted by state authorities, under which coal might be diverted to places in Indiana where suffering exists, or threatens to exist

American Loyalty

The federal committee on public information has issued another of the war information series pamphlets on "American Loyalty." It is a collection of articles by citizens of German descent who express their opinions on the war.

C. Kotzenabe says that for 25 years Germany has shown her dislike for the United States and enumerates circumstances to prove it, citing the unguarded words of the Kaiser himself. He declares that it has not been from mere commercial or diplomatic friction but it is "because their ideals of government are absolutely different." And there it is in a nutshell.

Otto Kahn of New York, famed in the United States as a financier, writes of "Americans of German origin and The War." He himself is a German-American, but he says:

"Our one and supreme job, the one purpose to which all others must give way, is to bring this war to a successful conclusion.

To accomplish that, let each one of us feel himself personally responsible, let each one of us work as if our life depended on the result. And in a very real sense, does not our national life and our individual life depend on the outcome of this war?

"Would life be tolerable if the power of Prussianism, run mad and murderous, held the world by the throat, if the primacy of the earth belonged to a government steeped in the doctrines of a barbarous past and supported by a ruling caste which preaches the deification of sheer might, which despises liberty, hates democracy, and would destroy both if it could?

"To that spirit and to those doctrines we, citizens of America and servants, as such, of humanity, will oppose our solemn and unshakable resolution to make the world safe for democracy, and we will say, with a clear conscience, in the noble words which more than 500 years ago were uttered by the Parliament of Scotland:

"It is not for glory, or for riches, or for honor we fight, but for liberty alone, which no good man loses but with his life."

F. W. Lehmann, former president of the American Bar association and

OUR ENEMIES

What We Are Fighting Against

By Newell Dwight Hillis

(Third Article)

The roots of this war go back to 1860. At that time, Bismarck was the outstanding figure in Berlin. Germany was then an agricultural nation, having little manufacturing life. She had 40,000,000 of people, $30,000,000,000 of property, and a second-rate position in Europe. In 1860 England led Germany in the production of pig-iron, steel, cotton goods, woolen goods, the building of ships. Germany lacked good coking coal and hematite iron ore that are necessary to good steel, and without steel there was no industrial future for Germany.

Two courses were open to Bismarck; one was to accept an inferior sphere of influence for the little German states, and the other was to foment two wars and wrest away, by military force, coal treasures from Austria and later the iron mines of France found in Alsace and Lor-solicitor general of the U. S. under President Taft, who was born in Prussia in 1853, contributed a chapter on "National Service Knows No Hypothesis."

"I am an American citizen of German birth," he says, "but I have never counted that fact as among my political assets. Ancestry is one thing, and allegiance is another and very different things, not in any way to be qualified by ancestry, and especially not when dangerous duty is involved."

Franz Sigel, son of Gen. Franz Sigel, famous as an exile from autocratic Germany in 1848-1849 and as one of the bravest generals in the civil war, adds a chapter on the subject, "The Spirit of '48 in 1917."

Hans Russau of Pipestone, Minn., writes on the theme, "Plain Words by a Plain Citizen" and Judge Leo Rassieur, who was born in Prussia in 1844, makes his contribution on the subject, "One Answer Only." He came to this country as a boy and rose from the ranks in the Union army to the post of major. The last article is "The Call and The Reply," by A. J. Bacher, editor of "Haus und Herd" at Cincinnati, O.

Patriotism And Business

Our allies in Europe are watching you. The progress of the second Liberty Loan is a matter of intense interest to them, and how the people of the United States subscribe will be compared with the patriotism displayed by their own citizens and by the German nation in taking up the bonds issued by them.

Advice urging investment in these bonds has been received by friends and relatives in this country from across the water, according to information received by Liberty loan officials, for there is no safer or better security for your surplus funds than the United States of America. You are not giving anything away in such an investment; it is not an act of charity on your part. The government has made you a fair and square proposition and you can't lose.

Thousands of the foreign speaking population of this country are investing, notably the Greeks, who are subscribing freely in the central west. Whatever money they have, they have made while living in this country; the nation now needs financial help and it is up to those who have prospered beneath the star spangled banner to do their part.

It is both patriotism and good business on your part.

As a preliminary to more sanguinary engagements, our boys will first be engaged in murdering French verbs and other parts of speech.

It must be very trying to the brain of weary to invent excuses for declining work. It's a perfectly new condition of affairs for him.

The reports that turkeys will be forty cents are not calculated to bring pleasant thoughts of the approach of Thanksgiving.

The country correspondent who speaks of a "flying visit" will soon have ample authority for using the phrase.

rairie. Spreading out his plan before the Prussian King, Bismarck organized Germany into a standing army, and told his officers that for the time being "Germany's chief national industry must be war."

No one ever accused Bismarck, the statesman and diplomat, of having a muddy mind. He made the advantages of war to be seen, lying out in the sunshine. His argument ran thus: Farming pays six per cent., manufacturing eight per cent., banking ten per cent, but, viewed as an investment, war should pay a thousand per cent! The war with Denmark made possible the Kiel canal and access to the North Sea, and it paid far more than Bismarck's thousand per cent. The war in 1886 with Austria paid five thousand per cent, through conquered coal resources.

Then Bismarck planned his great move—to steady the iron mines of France. He tells us in his Memoirs that he forged one sentence in the French Emperor's telegram, and thus threw the burden of the declaration of war upon France; and, returning from his victorious campaign, he brought back to Berlin a billion dollars in gold, and also, what was far richer, the title-deeds to Alsace and Lorraine. In that hour, it became possible for Germany to produce the high-grade steel out of the newly-conquered coal and iron! Great were coined for the North German Lloyd and Hamburg American Lines and for the 42 centimeter guns. Within 30 years, Germany passed England first in production of pig-iron, second, of steel, third in chemical industries, fourth in toys and fifth in industrial efficiency. Plainly, the Franco-Prussian War paid Germany 10,000 per cent, on her investment.

Germany's military success went, like wood-alcohol, to the head of her people. The German officer became the hero of men and women. The army took control of the Fatherland. In the social world, the officer was the leader. At a banquet, who took precedence and walked at the head of the company to the seat of honor at the guest-table? Not the statesman, not the university professor, not the artist or author, not the banker or manufacturer, but the soldier. I have, myself, in Cologne, seen a banquet held up for an hour because the colonel had not arrived. Finally a private was found to represent the army and walk in with the chairman, to the guests' table.

Obsessed with the notion of military superiority, Germany became one vast military camp. The motto became: "Let Belgium produce wealth, we will grab it." Let France paint pictures, carve marbles, weave silks, and produce jewels, Germany can steal them." "Let England pile up treasures, we will hoist a black flag on the submarine and spoil her of her goods." "Anything that Germany does is right." At last, all the weapons were ready and Germany's soldiers stood like a burglar, with his pistol, his bomb-shell and his fire-brand, before the treasure-house of Europe, ready to prove that "war is Germany's chief national industry."

Catarrh of Stomach

Mrs. Mary Fennell, R. F. D., Pomon, Missouri, writes: "I wish to say a few words in the praise of Peruna. I have used it with good results for cramps in the stomach. Also found it the very thing for catarrh of the head. My sister was cured of catarrh of stomach by the use of Peruna." Mrs. E. T. Chomer, 69 East 42nd St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Manalin best laxative on the market for liver and bowels, very good for indigestion and heart burn. Those who object to liquid medicines can secure Peruna tablets."

"THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—"All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth," says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town.

"I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work.

Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it."

There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui today. At all druggists.

WATER SYSTEM IS ABOUT COMPLETE

Strainer For One Well is All That is Required to Finish Camp Shelby Improvement

RESERVOIRS ARE ALL FULL

Hattiesburg Will Raise Fund of $10,000 to Provide Entertainment for Soldiers

Hattiesburg, Miss., Oct. 13.—A strainer for well No. 3—is all that is now required to complete Camp Shelby's water system.

Two wells are working at full capacity and the third, which has just been finished, is in use but is furnishing only a portion of the water it will supply when the strainer is installed. The strainer is expected daily.

Alex Twombly and others who assisted him in furnishing the camp's water system after many had predicted that a sufficient supply of water could never be had at Camp Shelby are receiving congratulations on their work as the pumps, working only part of the time, deliver to every part of the camp an abundance of water.

The water from the three artesian wells has met every test and has proved itself of highest quality. It is soft, and is free from organic matter.

Tests will be made of the water every week, to make sure that the men in camp are getting pure water. There is believed to be little danger of contamination, for the water comes from a depth of nearly 400 feet and the wells are fitted from their bottoms to the mouth of the pumps with six inch iron casing.

The 4 reservoirs, with a storage capacity of a half million gallons are now full of water. The two tanks in the eastern part of the camp hold 100,000 gallons each, that in the field hospital 200,000 and that of the remount station 100,000. As the wells will have a combined capacity of 1,500,000 gallons a day each, the filling of these reservoirs will be a matter of but a few hours.

The people of Hattiesburg will be asked for $10,000 as part of the $3,750,000 that is to be raised throughout the United States for the entertainments of soldiers in towns in nearby cantonments and other army and navy stations.

All the money to be raised here will be spent in Hattiesburg for the entertainment of Camp Shelby soldiers. The local fund will be supplemented from the general fund, and it is expected that the local welfare committee will have about $30,000 as a result of the campaign.

Preliminary plans for raising the $10,000 were mapped out at a joint meeting of the Commercial Club and the Welfare Committee last night.

The committee that will have charge of the raising of the funds will be composed of G. J. Hauenstein, chairman; F. W. Foote, J. F. Wilder, G. M. McWilliams, R. B. McLeod and John A. McLeod. This is the same committee that raised the fund which resulted in the location of Camp Shelby near Hattiesburg.

An auditorium with a seating capacity of perhaps 4,000 will, according to plans of the Welfare Committee, be built from the funds as soon as they are available. The building of a large auditorium was tentatively agreed upon at the meeting last night, when it was decided that this was one of the greatest needs of the city, in the entertainment of the soldiers.

The money will be used in providing club rooms for soldiers while in the city, in carrying entertainers to and from camp, and in similar ways.

It was pointed out at last night's meeting that the movement had the strongest endorsement of President Wilson and other national figures.

TO RIDE IN ARMORED CAR

Carthage Citizen: B. F. Cottrill, formerly of the schools here, has enlisted in Co. H, 166 Regulars, known as the "Battery of Armored Cruisers," and will see service in France. He leaves Chillicothe, O., soon for Camp Mills, Mineola, L. I. Mr. Cottrill was in the Regulars previous to training at Ft. Harrison.

How Uncle Sam Will Dig Into Your Pocketbook

From the cradle to the grave most of man's activities will now be taxed under the new Revenue Bill, points out an Associated Press correspondent, since "baby's first dash of talcum powder under the 2% tax on cosmetics will help the Government carry on the war, and after death, the Federal Collectors will be on hand to get the Inheritance Tax at advances on the present rate of from 1% on $50,000.00 to 10% on $1,000,000.00."

While Congressman Kitchin and Senator Simmons, respectively responsible for the Tax Revenue legislation in the House and Senate, express much satisfaction with it, the newspaper press in various sections of the country is commenting upon what it deems, to use the words of the New York Evening Sun, the law's serious "inequities," "obscurities," "incomprehensibilities," and "unworkabilities."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 13th, a clear exposition of what the new taxation will cost individuals and corporations is given and the drift of public opinion upon it is shown. Other striking phases of the world's-news are presented under these headings:

TO MAKE TITLES HARDER TO GET

Strong Movement is Under Way in England to Put The Bars to American Heiresses

ENGLISH REAL OFFENDERS

For Years There Has Been Talk of Political Trading Involved—Bad Feeling Comes to Head

London, Sept. 25—(By Mail)—There's a strong movement under way in England to make English titles harder to get.

There is no disposition, let it be reassuringly said, to put the bars against American heiresses. So far as can be ascertained, the status quo ante is to be preserved in that respect, though the ante itself may be raised.

Americans may believe that the scandal of the English nobility is the manner in which a wealthy American girl may marry a titled Englishman and straightway become a Duchess, more or less. But the real scandal is the manner in which many Englishmen obtained their own titles. For years there has been talk of the political trading involved and now the bad feeling seems to have come to a head.

Lord Selborne, with apparently unimpeachable right to his own title, having obtained the support of forty others similarly fortified, it is presumed, has put the matter up to the House of Lords. He has proposed a little measure for all grants of honors and dignities. That is to say, when the Prime Minister recommends to the King that Bill Jones, Esq., be made Sir Bill Jones, K. C. B., he shall publish the fact and the wherefor. Since the King confers practically all such honors on the Prime Minister's suggestion, this, in the opinion of Lord Selborne and his heroic forty followers, should stop the evil.

But they have another bill. This would require the Prime Minister to declare to the King, in each case, that no payment direct or indirect was made or promised in connection with the title grant. That is to say, that no contribution to the party's funds had been made by the eager recipient of the honor.

The press is supporting Lord Selborne with enthusiasm. “The existence is notorious,” says the Times. “The most valuable assist of the state, its power to ennoble, is cheapened and degraded and a tradition of honor becomes a means of corruption,” says the Post.

As said before, all this contains little to worry American heiresses. If titles become scarcer they may cost a little more in the marriage market, that's all. And they will not really be any scarcer in the circle at which the heiresses aim—the ancient and hardened circle whose titles are of long standing.

the glory of God that he be excluded from this church until God gives him repentance."

It seems that "Brother" Harrison was given to intemperate habits because the records of March 27 of the same year disclose that a complaint was lodged against him for intoxication. It is stated that on that occasion there was an investigation, but that the church "received satisfaction from the Brother's acknowledgements."

The minutes of the same day also show that failure to attend services was considered in the nature of a misdemeanor. One notation says: "An inquiry made by the church respecting the nonattendance of Brother Logan Kindall and Sister Russia. Brother Abraham Hackleman was appointed to cite them to attend meeting."

The question of whether deacons and elders should be ordained in the church agitated the members, according to the minutes of January 20 and February 17, 1827. It was decided that deacons should be ordained, but "that the church finds no scripture to prove the ordination of elders more than once."

It seems that "Sister" Margaret Kitchen was guilty of something in the eyes of the church because the minutes of April 15, 1826 say that she "came forward and gave satisfaction to the church and was restored to fellowship again."

A motion that the church make inquiry into the standing of "Brother" W. Pherson was considered at the meeting Oct. 15, 1825 and it was decided he should be requested to attend the next meeting. At the next session Nov. 19 "Brother" Pherson gave satisfaction for nonattendance. At this same meeting the question of dividing the church because of some difference of opinion was considered and it was decided that one side should meet at the meeting house and the other at "Brother Jones on the head of Garrison creek."

On January 15, 1825 "Brother" Reuben Sailors was ordered to attend the next meeting. The minutes of each monthly meeting up until July 16 refer to the citation regarding "Brother" Sailors and say it was postponed until the next meeting. At this meeting it was decided that the church should disown him for not attending.

Dancing and frolicking were other things banned by the church, it seems. The minutes of August 21, 1824 say: "Brother Logan Kindall laid in a complaint against himself for amusing himself in merry company, in frolicking and dancing." He was reinstated in good standing after several questions were asked.

Conrad Sailor wrote a letter to the church and it is recorded in the minutes of June 19, 1824 that "he confesses his faults with grief and the church decided to bear with Brother Sailor."

There was a division of opinion among the people regarding religious ideas as early as May 15, 1824 for the church resolved to disown "their brethren on Williams Creek in consequence of their ideas and intended practice of communion." The names of the ones disowned are given.

At the meeting January 17, 1824, a complaint was laid against "Brother" Conrad Sailor "for unadvisedly whipping a man at Rushville." "Brother" Sailor was ordered to appear before the church and explain.

At the regular monthly session of the church on March 1, 1823 the question as to whether members should be excluded for communing with any other society was debated and it was finally decided they should not, this conclusion being reached:

"We believe that there is many pious Christians who differ with us and that all believers are one in Christ Jesus and such have a right to all the ordinances of His house, and we are so far from excluding any of our members for communing where they have fellowship that we think it their privilege to do and we have agreed to invite all such as such sustain the character of God's children to commune with us, and now dear brethren, we have given you a statement of our situation and we do most sincerely desire your Christian love and fellowship, yet we can not think of giving up our Christian liberties and if you can not follow us we hope that the Lord will direct your conduct towards us."

EATING WHITE BREAD IS HABIT

Barnard Says It Is Not a Necessity
And Yet It Will Be Hard to Get Away From

URGES ECONOMICAL USE OF IT

Is A Staple Food and Its Absence
Will Fail to Satisfy Everyone,
He Says

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Dr. H. E. Barnard, state food commissioner in speaking on economy in the use of wheat and wheat products today said that he was not urging people to give up using wheat bread for a week, or even a meal; but to be economical in its use and not wasteful. Barnard's statement follows:

"White bread at every meal is a habit, not a necessity and yet the habit is so firm that it will not be an easy thing even when we know that we must deny ourselves so that our soldiers may be fed to do without toast for breakfast, sandwiches for lunch and crisp slices of Vienna bread for dinner. The state food administrator of Massachusetts is not advocating one wheatless meal a day and is to be content to simply urge the economical use of white bread. He goes the whole way and his recommendations to hotels, clubs, cafes and restaurants is to cut out white bread altogether for a full week. The success of his war policy will only be known when the work is done.

"White bread is a staple food, and a breadless table will no doubt fail to satisfy everyone, yet anyone who will not agree to sacrifice his fondness for white bread will show himself to be unpleasantly selfish and unpatriotic. There are so many substitutes for white bread—rye bread, corn bread, of many kinds, brown bread and oatmeal muffins that no one should have any difficulty in forgetting for the present that there is any such thing as white bread. It ought to be especially easy to change one's eating habits now when such delectable foods as corn on cob, butter beans, tomatoes, beats and all the other products of the garden are so abundant and so cheap.

"It is one thing not to talk of a war diet and personal sacrifice when we merely omitting a single article of food from our ample dietary, and quite another when bread and almost every other necessity is secured by card in France and Germany."

FINED $1 AND COSTS FOR COURT CONTEMPT

Divorced Wife of George Hoffman
is Ordered by Judge to Surrender Child

BEARING ON STEVENS' CASE

Mrs. Dessie Hoffman, divorced wife of George Hoffman of Connersville and a niece of Omar and Manfred Stevens, was fined one dollar and costs in the Fayette circuit court Thursday for contempt of court in failing to return her child to George Hoffman as provided in the divorce decree. She was also ordered to surrender the child.

Immediately after the finding of Judge Springer a motion was filed by lawyers for Mrs. Hoffman asking that the divorce decree be modified and a hearing on this motion will be held Oct. 22. It was this child that Hoffman went to see last spring at the Stevens home, which led to a fight resulting the Stevens brothers being arrested for assault and battery with intent to kill.

Amusements

The Princess offers, "The Range Boss," for the program tonight. Jack Gardner and Ruth King are featured and it is said to be a fine romance of a cowboy and an eastern heiress. There is plenty of action and big situations. In addition the comedy, "Perils of Pauline," will be shown, in which Pokes and Jabs are featured. Monday Alice Brady will be seen in the feature drama, "The Divorce Game."

PLAYS LOTTERY ON WOUNDS; WINS

Italian Soldier Spent Forty Cents
After Consulting Soothsaying
Books

HE FOUND MAGIC FORMULA

Didn't Want it For Himself But Wife
and Kiddies—Played and
Went to Carso

By JOHN H. HIRLEY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 9. (By Mail)—A black-haired soldier dropped into the state lottery office at Brescia, hesitating before the busy clerk vainly trying to think of "lucky numbers."

"O, play, on your wound, it may bring you luck," advised the impatient clerk, glancing at the silver tape on the soldier's arm which indicated that he had been "wounded at the front."

The clerk got out the soothsaying book and between them they interpreted the wound in "lucky numbers." The date and zone of the battle, the nature of the bullet and the feelings of its victim, all had their numerical equivalents.

"I don't want to win for myself," the soldier remarked. "I'm thinking of Maria and the youngsters. Think of what the money would mean to them. Madonna mia, bless my numbers."

The soldier risked forty cents on the magic formula, far more than he could really afford. "Soy, just jot my numbers down and send my winnings to my wife and babies, if I don't come back from the Carso," he told the lotteryman. The clerk jotted the soldier's numbers in a note book and turned to several talkative peasants.

The drawings were later held under the eye of Italian officialdom. The next day the clerk remembered the soldier and referring to his note-book discovered that the wounded stranger had won $5,000.

Squire James Kratzer, who mysteriously left the city some time Wednesday night, has not gone to stay, for in a letter written to his daughter, Mrs. Fred McCloud, of this city, who is employed in Connersville, he stated he would be back.

His friends are at a loss as to why he should leave so mysteriously. In the letter to his daughter, which was mailed from Indianapolis, Squire Kratzer expresses regret at not getting to see her before he left and told her he was sorry, but says he will see her when he gets back. He was seen in Columbus, Ind., by a local man Thursday.

His friends declare they would have come to his aid had he made known that he wanted anything.

SLACKERS TRUST EXPLODED

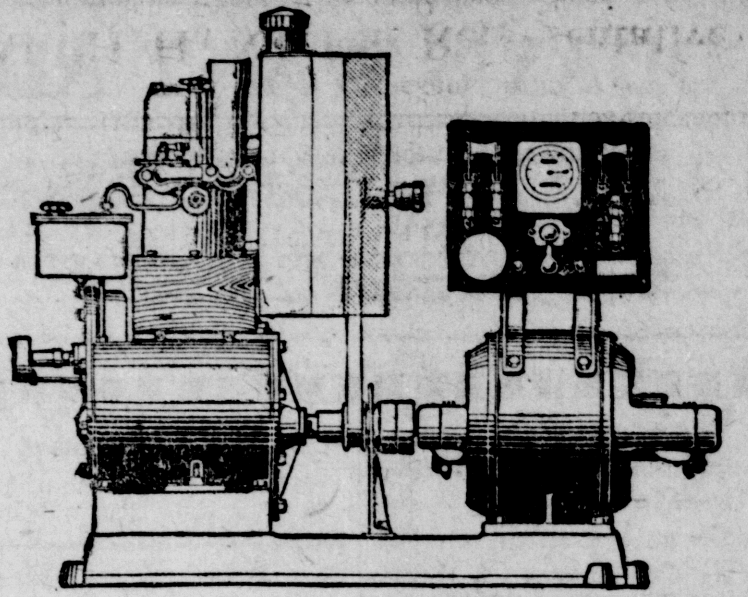

Hunchback Paid to Obtain Exemption for Men

London, Sept. 27. (By Mail)—The War Office has uncovered a unique method of evading military service.

When Sidney Brew, a young commission merchant, was arrested on another charge he was found to have a certificate of exemption certifying that he was a hunchback. He admitted that a group of men had hired a hunch-back to present himself for each of them as their summons came to procure exemption certificates.

Meantime the hunch-back joined the navy and drowned in a ship sunk by a submarine. The War Office is searching for the other members of the evading group.

ONE NEW CASE OF DIPHTHERIA FOUND

Epidemic is Improving, However, as
Several Families Are Released
From Quarantine

MORE CASES ARE EXPECTED

Health Board is Having Little
Trouble Enforcing Regulations
2 Cases Scarlet Fever

Red Cross Headquarters Closed Due To Epidemic

Red Cross headquarters were closed indefinitely today because of the epidemic of diphtheria. This step has been considered for several days because it was feared diphtheria germs might be transmitted to garments being made there. Precautionary steps have been taken before this, but it was decided closing would be the best policy.

One new case of diphtheria and two cases of scarlet fever were reported by the health board today. The situation otherwise is unchanged. The new case of diphtheria is in the family of Charles Luckner, 603 North Willow street, Vivian, being the victim. The scarlet fever is confined to the Handy family, 834 West Tenth street.

If anything the diphtheria epidemic is improved. Several families under quarantine have been released, the patients having recovered and no new cases developing. From the large number that have been exposed, however, the health board expects additional cases, but at the same time declares the situation is satisfactory. The epidemic has improved even in the short time the schools have been closed and this step is now having its effect.

At least five families have been released in the last few days from the quarantine and this alone is a good sign that the epidemic is abating. The two cases of scarlet fever should cause no alarm as there have been several cases and no epidemic is feared. One or two cases of scarlet fever are to be found here almost the year around.

The health board is having little trouble enforcing its regulations regarding the quarantine. The public has been co-operating nicely and only one or two cases have been found of persons under 21 years of age attempting to gain admission to the picture shows. It now appears that the schools will be able to open one week from Monday as originally planned.

The health board stated today that none of the diphtheria patients was in a critical condition and unless, some unforeseen complications develop no additional deaths are expected.

Every precaution has been taken at Red Cross headquarters to prevent spreading germs of diphtheria among garments being made for soldiers. No children are allowed in the headquarters and no yarn is being sent out for knitting as long as the quarantine regulations are in effect. There has been some talk of closing the headquarters and this step was finally decided on today.

URGES MORE VIGOR PUT IN CAMPAIGN

Telegram From Chicago Today Says
It Is Vitrally Important in Liberty Bond Work

MORE ADVERTISING NEEDED

No Report Received Today Regarding Subscriptions, But One Is Expected Monday

No report was received today from the seventh district federal reserve bank district headquarters at Chicago concerning Indiana counties subscriptions to the Liberty Loan, though one was expected. It was not known whether any great gain in subscriptions was made here on account of the special drive this week until the next report is received. The chairman of the bankers organization believes that a report will be forthcoming Monday.

Plans are being made to enlist a woman's committee in the canvassing. A. L. Gary, chairman of the County Council of Defense, has received fifty blanks to be used by such a committee. They are blue in color and are different from the regular blanks used. The question of woman's committee working in the Liberty Loan campaign will be taken up with Mrs. A. L. Stewart, chairwoman of the woman's division of the county defense body.

Telegrams were received today by the chairman of the bankers association and the chairman of the publicity committee saying that it was "vitrally important for success of Liberty Bond campaign that vigorous advertising program be followed in every community." The offer made in the telegram for mounted stereotypes was accepted and they will be used as local advertisements. It is felt that a more vigorous advertising campaign is needed because of the poor showing made the first ten days of the bond sale campaign.

Lieutenant Governor Edgar D. Bush, acting for Governor Goodrich, has issued a proclamation urging that Liberty Loan Sunday be observed in Indiana churches tomorrow. The diphtheria epidemic makes impossible such a celebration here because only one church service will be held. The publicity committee of this federal reserve district set a week from Sunday as Liberty Loan Sunday and it is possible that the special day will be observed here then. The question will be taken up with Dr. D. Ira Lambert, president of the ministerial association. It is requested that ministers preach special sermons, that the national anthem be sung at the same hour in all churches and that church bells be tolled simultaneously for ten minutes.

It is not likely that Boy Scouts will be used in the campaign here, as they were for the first Liberty Loan. The fact that they are attending school makes it next to impossible for them to participate. Boy Scout week, October 20 to 25. They did valiant service in the first Liberty Loan, selling $23,238,250 worth of Liberty Bonds to 139,645 people all over the United States.

CALLS GRAND JURY NEXT WEDNESDAY

Court Hears Exceptions to Final
Report in Riley Stewart Estate Filed by Alleged Son

The grand jury was ordered into session for next Wednesday by Judge Sparks today. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court and the nature of the things to be investigated have not been disclosed.

The members of the grand jury are as follows: J. B. McCarty, Rushville township; Franklin P. Wagoner, Orange; Thomas L. Gilson, Center; Jesse L. Morris, Union; Adam O. Gordon, Washington and Willard P. King, Noble.

The court this morning heard the exceptions to the final report of William O. Stewart, administrator of the estate of the late Riley Stewart, filed by Sanford Heaton as guardian for Earl Stewart. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement. Earl Stewart claims to be the legitimate son of the late Riley Stewart and claims a share in the final settlement, which was not given under the final report filed by the administrator.

The complaint alleged that Riley Stewart recognized the boy as his son and should the exceptions be sustained he would get his one-third interest in the estate.

The divorce suit of Knowles Carroll against Elizabeth Carroll was heard by the court and continued for further evidence. The defendant failed to appear and the prosecutor appeared.

Pending the final outcome of her divorce suit against Harry Headlee, Lucy Headlee will receive the sum of $3 a week for support under an order of court issued after hearing the testimony on the allowance question.

PROOF OF WANING U-BOAT CAMPAIGN

German Minister Von Cappel's Resignation in Interpreted This Way in London

IS ELAMED FOR NAVY MUTINY

One Reason For Open Outbreak Was Policy of Forcing Sailors to Work on Submarines

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 13.—The strongest proof that Germany's submarine campaign is waning, was London's interpretation today of the news of German Minister Von Cappel's resignation.

The direct cause of his retirement was undoubtedly his reichstag relations of the German mutiny.

He was blamed for permitting conditions to exist under which such mutiny could grow and he came in for the radicals' displeasure when he joined what appeared the liberal element in bolstering Michaelis' fight for Vice-chancellor Helfferich.

Other evidences have been trickling out of Germany indicating a gradual realization by the public of the failure of the submarine warfare despite glowing optimism of government heads. One reason for the open outbreak at Wilhelmshaven according to one report, was the naval policy of forcing sailors to work on submarines.

One dispatch asserted that a number who refused this duty had been severely punished. That this spirit of mutiny is still prevalent, is seen in another report of the execution of four or five men for the same of fense. Heavy increases in pay and leaves of absence and special food while on shore, all offered for submarine duty, have failed to attract U-boat crews.

Kaiser Wilhelm is not expected back in Berlin before the latter part of October and some German dispatches indicate that Von Cappel's resignation as well as the future of Chancellor Michaelis would not be decided until then.

REPRISALS INDICATED

London, October 13.—The morning papers suggest that the government is ready to begin carrying out reprisal air raids on Germany. This belief is based on the assignment of the director-general of military aeronautics to special work and the sending of director of air organization for the army abroad.

RUSSELL IS SENT TO DUGOUT

Is Relieved by Cicotte in First Inning
After One Run Had Been Made Against Him.

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—The Giants were leading by two markers at the end of the sixth inning this afternoon and their playing indicated that they would hold their lead the remaining three innings. The New York club batters got Russell early in the game and he was replaced by Cicotte in the first frame after one Giant runner had crossed the plate.

Chicago ---- 0 0 1 0 0 1

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—With chilly breezes sweeping across the field the White Sox and Giants started the fifth game of the worlds series. Overcoats and furs took the place of bunting and flags. Russell started pitching for Chicago with Schalk catching. Sallee and Laiden was the battery for New York. Russell was relieved by Cicotte in the first frame after one run had counted. The crowd stood and shivered and shook their feet in the frigid breeze while the Giants went through a stiff batting practice after taking the field at 12:20.

It seemed certain that the crowd would not approach the 32,000 mark set in the first two games. Shortly before the game it was doubtful if half that number were in the park. The crowd showed very little pep as the two teams warmed up.

The Sox kept near their bench while the Giants batted. If a seventh game is necessary it will be played in New York. This was decided today when a coin was flipped and Comiskey called "tails." When the coin stopped rolling "heads" was up.

FIRST INNING
New York—Burns walked, Herzog singled to center, Burns going to third, Kauff doubled to right, scoring Burns. Herzog went to third. Cicotte replaced Russell on the mound. Herzog was out at the plate on Zimmerman's grounder. Weaver to Schalk. Kauff was out at the plate, McMullen to Schalk on Fletcher's grounder. Zimmerman went to second and Fletcher safe at first. Robertson singled to center scoring Zimmerman. Holke out, Weaver to Gandil. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING
Chicago—J. Collins popped to Zimmerman. McMullen walked. E. Collins singled to center. Jackson flied to Burns. Felsch safe on Fletcher's error, McMullen going to third. Gandil popped to Holke. No runs, one hit and one error.

New York—Rariden singled to center. Sallee out. Herzog out.

FAIL TO INCREASE SINGLE RISK LIMIT

Rush County Farmers Insurance Company Stockholders Vote
Against the Proposal

ANNUAL MEETING HELD TODAY

W. A. Alexander Replaces John Gartin as President—In Fine
Financial Condition.

Efforts to raise the amount of a single risk from $4,000 to $6,000 failed this afternoon at the annual meeting of the Rush County Farmers' Insurance company. Because of the high price of farm products an attempt was made to amend the constitution so that the company could insure up to $6,000 instead of the present limit of $4,000. The motion was lost by a vote of 35 to 25, it requiring a two-thirds vote of the membership present.

John W. Gartin was replaced as president for the ensuing year by William A. Alexander and the other officers were re-elected. Thomas A. Jones is vice-president and L. R. Webb, actuary. The auditing committee is composed of Oliver M. Siler, Joe Pike and Ed Lowden.

An attempt was made to re-elect the old officers by acclamation but this was lost and then the stockholders proceeded to elect separately. Mr. Alexander's name was placed in nomination as opposed to Gartin and before the ballot was taken Mr. Gartin withdrew. There was no opposition to the other officers.

The constitution was amended so that in the future church property outside of any incorporated town can be insured. Heretofore the state law would not permit this but the last legislature defined the things a mutual insurance company can insure and included church buildings and contents. Taking advantage of the law, the association by an almost unanimous vote decided to amend the constitution so as to include churches.

The financial report showed the company in excellent financial condition. A crowd of nearly one hundred attended the meeting.

The report of the actuary, L. R. Webb revealed the remarkable growth of the company. Ten years ago the company was in debt $7,500 and now it has almost this amount on the other side of the ledger. For the year just closing the company carried a total of $4,741,321 in insurance.

This is a gain of $33,151 over last year. During the year a net gain of 73 in membership was made, showing that the company is still growing. During the year 153 new members were added to the organization and a loss of eighty caused by death, withdrawals and removals brought the net membership gain to 73. The total membership was shown to be 2,348.

The receipts for the year as shown by the actuary's report were $9,910.12 and the expenditures $3,148.49, showing a balance on hand of $6,761.63.

This was the forty-second annual meeting of the insurance company. Every year the company has shown a steady increase in the amount of insurance carried. At the fortieth annual meeting a gain of $116,556 was shown and at the forty-first meeting the gain in insurance over the previous year was $144,094.

The losses for the year were about down to the minimum, the total amount being paid out for losses and the majority were caused by lightning. The largest single claim was paid to Elsworth Kiser for the loss of a clover huller. Mr. Kiser received $350 on Oct. 28, 1916. The next highest loss was paid to Jesse A. Leisure when he received $242.86 when fire damaged a house on his farm. The report shows

Minutes of Little Flatrock Baptist Church of 1821 to 1830, Which Have Been Placed in Public Library, Disclose Puritanical
Customs and Beliefs of Church of That Day. Notation Says Congregation Finally Decides to Invite Others to Sit With Them.

The puritanical customs and beliefs of the early church in Rush county are disclosed by the minutes of the Little Flatrock Baptist church from the years 1821 to 1830, contained in a little notebook yellow with age, a county relic which has been placed in the public library. The minutes were sent here from Des Moines, Iowa, by S. C. Conner, a former Rushville man.

Among other things, the church minutes reveal that "churching," a man or woman was not an uncommon thing and that drunkenness was not looked upon as lightly as it is these days—not habitual drunkenness, but the occasional "spree." They also show the narrowness of the church of a century ago by the notation of a vote by the church members to allow members of other congregations to sit with them at worship.

The minutes of November 17,

1828 say that "Brother Henry Lines laid a complaint against himself for the sin of intoxication and gave satisfaction. The church agrees to bear with the brother."

A notation in the minutes of January 19, 1828 say that Charles S. Catt laid in a complaint against himself for mixing tallow with beeswax and selling it to Mr.—(the name is not written legibly) as good beeswax. The church took some action, but what was done can not be read in the minutes because of their age.

One record shows that a man was excommunicated for intemperance and using profane language. One paragraph of the minutes for the August, 1827, meeting says: "A charge brought against Brother James Harrison for intemperance and using profane language. After mature deliberation it is thought

Not Because He Can't Afford Better But to be Closer to His Business

CAME FROM COLUMBUS, OHIO

Rented Two Rooms and Refitted Them in Keeping With His Station in Life

(By United Press.)

New York, Oct. 13.—Columbus, O., has the distinction of giving to New York the only man in the entire length and breadth of Manhattan Island who lives below Fulton street. He is Henry L. Doherty, banker of No. 60 Wall street.

Doherty, who started out in life as a newsboy on the streets of Columbus and who now is a millionaire banker and owner of some 200 public utilities, has a unique home at the corner of Bridge and Broad streets on the lower tip of Manhattan Island.

Across the street is the old Franco Tavern where Washington bade farewell to his troops. To the south is the New York harbor with its myriads of ferryboats.

Doherty, an indefatigable worker, formerly had a home on Riverside Drive but found that after working until past midnight it was a long trip home in his automobile. So he looked about for a place in the neighborhood where he could sleep until the next day. There are no hotels below Fulton street—save perhaps for a few longshoremen resorts, so at last Doherty discovered an apartment in the tenement house at Bridge and Broad streets.

He rented two rooms and had them refitted in keeping with his station in life. The lower end of the island after midnight is practically deserted, only the staccato beat of the nightwatchman's stick and the chiming of Trinity break the still air. Doherty found he could sleep better away from the noise and after two weeks rented the entire second floor of the building. There are large living rooms, guest rooms and one music room in which is installed a large pipe organ where Doherty amuses himself after a hard night's work on the stupendous details of his enormous business.

The apartment is lighted by a system of flood lighting that gives added charm to the rare bric-a-brac and costly fittings. A negro servant acts as cook and general factotum. There is no elevator but the visitor after a walk up a tiny pair of stairs finds himself in one of the most tastefully decorated and quiet homes in the city.

NOT WORK OF GERMAN SPIES

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—That German sympathizers have not been responsible for many cases of cattle and other stock poisoning over the state is the opinion of Dr. L. E. Northrup, state veterinarian today, following a thorough investigation into all cases reported by his assistants.

In the majority of cases, local quarrels and jealousy were found to be the reasons for the trouble, according to Northrup.

One case was reported where Paris-green had been buried near the surface of the ground so that pigs could root it up and would probably cause their death.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by illa and allia. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to illa after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains those mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow pale, complexion that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin and iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life to your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone. Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist's or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price. The Santanel Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

FARMERS DISCUSS BEEF PRODUCTION

Are Addressed by W. F. Franklin, Government Representative, And Rush County Feeders.

URGED TO BUY GOOD CATTLE

Following the meeting of the Rush County Farmers Insurance company this afternoon, a meeting was held in the interest of increasing beef production in the county and using up fodder, much of which is usually wasted. The call for the meeting was issued by the County Council of Defense and A. L. Gary, chairman of the council presided. W. F. Franklin of Danville, who is here as a representative of the United States department of agriculture in the interest of better seed corn, spoke briefly and S. H. Trabue, a local stock buyer, and other Rush county men spoke.

While Mr. Franklin is in Rush county and will remain all of next week and possibly longer, to get the farmers to select good seed corn for next year's crop, he discussed beef production in his talk because that was the purpose of the meeting. He said the first essential in feeding cattle was to get stock. He advised that a man of the community who had a long experience in feeding be selected to select feeding cattle if any farmer wanted to buy any.

INDIANA MAY ACT IN COAL SHORTAGE

Unless Fuel Administrator is Appointed by First of Week, State Likely to Take Hand

SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Some action by the state authorities, probably centering in the public service commission, and the Governor's office, may be taken to relieve the serious coal shortage conditions in the state, unless the federal fuel administration appoints a federal coal director in Indiana by the first of next week. Will G. Irwin, of Columbus, has been recommended to the federal authorities for weeks as a splendid man to handle the coal problems of Indiana, and an organization under which the fuel problems of the state might be worked out to best advantage, had been worked out for some time, awaiting the appointment of a federal official to take charge of the work. Why the appointment in Indiana has been delayed, when coal directors in many other states have been named, is not known. It is understood that some plan may be adopted by state authorities, under which coal might be diverted to places in Indiana where suffering exists, or threatens to exist

The federal committee on public information has issued another of the war information series pamphlets on "American Loyalty." It is a collection of articles by citizens of German descent who express their opinions on the war.

C. Kotzenabe says that for 25 years Germany has shown her dislike for the United States and enumerates circumstances to prove it, citing the unguarded words of the Kaiser himself. He declares that it has not been from mere commercial or diplomatic friction but it is "because their ideals of government are absolutely different." And there it is in a nutshell.

Otto Kahn of New York, famed in the United States as a financier, writes of "Americans of German origin and The War." He himself is a German-American, but he says:

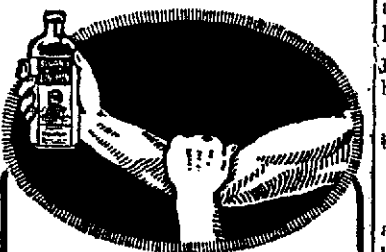

"Our one and supreme job, the one purpose to which all others must give way, is to bring this war to a successful conclusion.

To accomplish that, let each one of us feel himself personally responsible, let each one of us work as if our life depended on the result. And in a very real sense, does not our national life and our individual life depend on the outcome of this war? "Would life be tolerable if the power of Prussianism, run mad and murderous, held the world by the throat, if the primacy of the earth belonged to a government steeped in the doctrines of a barbarous past and supported by a ruling caste which preaches the deification of sheer might, which despises liberty, hates democracy, and would destroy both if it could?"

"To that spirit and to those doctrines we, citizens of America and servants, as such, of humanity, will oppose our solemn and unshakable resolution to make the world safe for democracy, and we will say, with a clear conscience, in the noble words which more than 500 years ago were uttered by the Parliament of Scotland:

"It is not for glory, or for riches, or for honor we fight, but for liberty alone, which no good man loses but with his life."

F. W. Lehmann, former president of the American Bar association and

What We Are Fighting Against

By Newell Dwight Hillis

(Third Article)

The roots of this war go back to 1860. At that time, Bismarck was the outstanding figure in Berlin. Germany was then an agricultural nation, having little manufacturing life. She had 40,000,000 of people, $30,000,000,000 of property, and a second-rate position in Europe. In 1860 England led Germany in the production of pig-iron, steel, cotton goods, woolen goods, the building of ships. Germany lacked good coking coal and hematite iron ore that are necessary to good steel, and without steel there was no industrial future for Germany.

Two courses were open to Bismarck; one was to accept an inferior sphere of influence for the little German states, and the other was to foment two wars and wrest away, by military force, coal treasures from Austria and later the iron mines of France found in Alsace and Lor-

solicitor general of the U. S. under President Taft, who was born in Prussia in 1853, contributed a chapter on "National Service Knows No Hypocrisy."

"I am an American citizen of German birth," he says, "but I have never counted that fact as among my political assets. Ancestry is one thing, and allegiance is another and very different things, not in any way to be qualified by ancestry, and especially not when dangerous duty is involved."

Franz Sigel, son of Gen. Franz Sigel, famous as an exile from autocratic Germany in 1848-1849 and as one of the bravest generals in the civil war, adds a chapter on the subject, "The Spirit of '48 in 1917."

Hans Rausan of Pipestone, Minn., writes on the theme, "Plain Words by a Plain Citizen" and Judge Leo Rassieur, who was born in Prussia in 1844, makes his contribution on the subject, "One Answer Only." He came to this country as a boy and rose from the ranks in the Union army to the post of major. The last article is "The Call and The Reply," by A. J. Bucher, editor of "Haus and Herd" at Cincinnati, O.

Patriotism And Business

Our allies in Europe are watching you. The progress of the second Liberty Loan is a matter of intense interest to them, and how the people of the United States subscribe will be compared with the patriotism displayed by their own citizens and by the German nation in taking up the bonds issued by them.

Advice urging investment in these bonds has been received by friends and relatives in this country from across the water, according to information received by Liberty loan officials, for there is no safer or better security for your surplus funds than the United States of America. You are not giving anything away in such an investment; it is not an act of charity on your part. The government has made you a fair and square proposition and you can't lose.

Thousands of the foreign speaking population of this country are investing, notably the Greeks, who are subscribing freely in the central west. Whatever money they have, they have made while living in this country; the nation now needs financial help and it is up to those who have prospered beneath the star spangled banner to do their part.

It is both patriotism and good business on your part.

As a preliminary to more sanguinary engagements, our boys will first be engaged in murdering French verbs and other parts of speech.

It must be very trying to the brain of weary to invent excuses for declining work. It's a perfectly new condition of affairs for him.

The reports that turkeys will be forty cents are not calculated to bring pleasant thoughts of the approach of Thanksgiving.

The country correspondent who speaks of a "flying visit" will soon have ample authority for using the phrase.

raime. Spreading out his plan before the Prussian King, Bismarck organized Germany into a standing army, and told his officers that for the time being "Germany's chief national industry must be war."

No one ever accused Bismarck, the statesman and diplomat, of having a muddled mind. He made the advantages of war to be seen, lying out in the sunshine. His argument ran thus: Farming pays six per cent., manufacturing eight per cent., banking ten per cent, but, viewed as an investment, war should pay a thousand per cent! The war with Denmark made possible the Kiel canal and access to the North Sea, and it paid far more than Bismarck's thousand per cent. The war in 1866 with Austria paid five thousand per cent, through conquered coal resources.

Then Bismarck planned his great move—to steal the iron mines of France. He tells us in his Memoirs that he forged one sentence in the French Emperor's telegram, and thus threw the burden of the declaration of war upon France; and, returning from his victorious campaign, he brought back to Berlin a billion dollars in gold, and also, what was far richer, the title-deeds to Alsace and Lorraine. In that hour, it became possible for Germany to produce the high-grade steel out of the newly-conquered coal and iron. Great were called for the North German Lloyd and Hamburg American Lines and for the 42 centimeter guns.. within 30 years, Germany passed England first in production of pig-iron, second, of steel, third in chemical industries, fourth in toys and fifth in industrial efficiency. Plainly, the Franco-Prussian War paid Germany 10,000 per cent, on her investment.

Germany's military success went, like wood-alcohol, to the head of her people. The German officer became the hero of men and women. The army took control of the Fatherland. In the social world, the officer was the leader. At a banquet, who took precedence and walked at the head of the company to the seat of honor at the guest-table? Not the statesman, not the university professor, not the artist or author, not the banker or manufacturer, but the soldier. I have, myself, in Cologne, seen a banquet held up for an hour because the colonel had not arrived. Finally a private was found to represent the army and walk in with the chairman, to the guests' table.

Obsessed with the notion of military superiority, Germany became one vast military camp. The motto became: "Let Belgium produce wealth, we will grab it." Let France paint pictures, carve marbles, weave silks, and produce jewels, Germany can steal them." "Let England pile up treasures, we will hoist a black flag on the submarine and spoil her of her goods." "Anything that Germany does is right." At last, all the weapons were ready and Germany's soldiers stood like a burglar, with his pistol, his bomb-shell and his fire-brand, before the treasure-house of Europe, ready to prove that "war is Germany's chief national industry."

Catarrh of Stomach

Mrs. Mary Fennell, R. F. D., Pomon, Missouri, writes: "I wish to say a few words in the praise of Peruna. I have used it with good results for cramps in the stomach. Also found it the very thing for catarrh of the head. My sister was cured of catarrh of stomach by the use of Peruna." Mrs. E. T. Chamer, 69 East 42nd St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Manalin best laxative on the market for liver and bowels, very good for indigestion and heart burn. Those who object to liquid medicines can secure Peruna tablets."

“THE WHOLE TRUTH”

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—“All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth,” says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town.

“I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work.

Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it.”

There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui today. At all druggists.

WATER SYSTEM IS ABOUT COMPLETE

Strainer For One Well Is All That is Required to Finish Camp Shelby Improvement

RESERVOIRS ARE ALL FULL

Hattiesburg Will Raise Fund of $10,000 to Provide Entertainment for Soldiers

Hattiesburg, Miss., Oct. 13.—A strainer for well No. 3—is all that is now required to complete Camp Shelby's water system.

Two wells are working at full capacity and the third, which has just been finished, is in use but is furnishing only a portion of the water it will supply when the strainer is installed. The strainer is expected daily.

Alex Twombly and others who assisted him in furnishing the camp's water system after many had predicted that a sufficient supply of water could never be had at Camp Shelby are receiving congratulations on their work as the pumps, working only part of the time, deliver to every part of the camp an abundance of water.

The water from the three artesian wells has met every test and has proved itself of highest quality. It is soft, and is free from organic matter.

Tests will be made of the water every week, to make sure that the men in camp are getting pure water. There is believed to be little danger of contamination, for the water comes from a depth of nearly 400 feet and the wells are fitted from their bottoms to the mouth of the pumps with six inch iron casing.

The 4 reservoirs, with a storage capacity of a half million gallons are now full of water. The two tanks in the eastern part of the camp hold 100,000 gallons each, that in the field hospital 200,000 and that of the remount station 100,000. As the wells will have a combined capacity of 1,500,000 gallons a day each, the filling of these reservoirs will be a matter of but a few hours.

The people of Hattiesburg will be asked for $10,000 as part of the $3,750,000 that is to be raised throughout the United States for the entertainments of soldiers in towns in nearby cantonments and other army and navy stations.

All the money to be raised here will be spent in Hattiesburg for the entertainment of Camp Shelby soldiers. The local fund will be supplemented from the general fund, and it is expected that the local welfare committee will have about $30,000 as a result of the campaign.

Preliminary plans for raising the $10,000 were mapped out at a joint meeting of the Commercial Club and the Welfare Committee last night.

The committee that will have charge of the raising of the funds will be composed of G. J. Hauenstein, chairman; F. W. Foote, J. F. Wilder, G. M. McWilliams, R. B. McLeod and John A. McLeod. This is the same committee that raised the fund which resulted in the location of Camp Shelby near Hattiesburg.

An auditorium with a seating capacity of perhaps 4,000 will, according to plans of the Welfare Committee, be built from the funds as soon as they are available. The building of a large auditorium was tentatively agreed upon at the meeting last night, when it was decided that this was one of the greatest needs of the city, in the entertainment of the soldiers.

The money will be used in providing club rooms for soldiers while in the city, in carrying entertainers to and from camp, and in similar ways.

It was pointed out at last night's meeting that the movement had the strongest endorsement of President Wilson and other national figures.

TO RIDE IN ARMORED CAR

Carthage Citizen: B. F. Cottrill, formerly of the schools here, has enlisted in Co. H. 166 Regulars, known as the “Battery of Armored Cruisers,” and will see service in France. He leaves Chillicothe, O., soon for Camp Mills, Mineola, L. I. Mr. Cottrill was in the Regulars previous to training at Ft. Harrison.

How Uncle Sam Will Dig Into Your Pocketbook

From the cradle to the grave most of man's activities will now be taxed under the new Revenue Bill, points out an Associated Press correspondent, since “baby's first dash of talcum powder under the 2% tax on cosmetics will help the Government carry on the war, and after death, the Federal Collectors will be on hand to get the Inheritance Tax at advances on the present rate of from 1% on $50,000.00 to 10% on $1,000,000.00.”

While Congressman Kitchin and Senator Simmons, respectively responsible for the Tax Revenue legislation in the House and Senate, express much satisfaction with it, the newspaper press in various sections of the country is commenting upon what it deems, to use the words of the New York Evening Sun, the law's serious “inequities,” “obscurities,” “incomprehensibilities,” and “unworkabilities.”

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 13th, a clear exposition of what the new taxation will cost individuals and corporations is given and the drift of public opinion upon it is shown. Other striking phases of the world's news are presented under these headings:

TO MAKE TITLES HARDER TO GET

Strong Movement is Under Way in England to Put The Bars to American Heiresses

ENGLISH REAL OFFENDERS

For Years There Has Been Talk of Political Trading Involved—Bad Feeling Comes to Head

London, Sept. 25.—(By Mail)—There's a strong movement under way in England to make English titles harder to get.

There is no disposition, let it be reassuringly said, to put the bars against American heiresses. So far as can be ascertained, the status quo ante is to be preserved in that respect, though the ante itself may be raised.

Americans may believe that the scandal of the English nobility is the manner in which a wealthy American girl may marry a titled Englishman and straightway become a Duchess, more or less. But the real scandal is the manner in which many Englishmen obtained their own titles. For years there has been talk of the political trading involved and now the bad feeling seems to have come to a head.

Lord Selborne, with apparently unimpeachable right to his own title, having obtained the support of forty others similarly fortified, it is presumed, has put the matter up to the House of Lords. He has proposed a little measure for all grants of honors and dignities. That is to say, when the Prime Minister recommends to the King that Bill Jones, Esq., be made Sir Bill Jones, K. C. B., he shall publish the fact and the wherefor. Since the King confers practically all such honors on the Prime Minister's suggestion, this, in the opinion of Lord Selborne and his heroic forty followers, should stop the evil.

But they have another bill. This would require the Prime Minister to declare to the King, in each case, that no payment direct or indirect was made or promised in connection with the title grant. That is to say, that no contribution to the party's funds had been made by the eager recipient of the honor.

The press is supporting Lord Selborne with enthusiasm. "The existence is notorious," says the Times. "The most valuable assist of the state, its power to ennoble, is cheapened and degraded and a tradition of honor becomes a means of corruption," says the Post.

As said before, all this contains little to worry American heiresses. If titles become scarcer they may cost a little more in the marriage market, that's all. And they will not really be any scarcer in the circle at which the heiresses aim—the ancient and hardened circle whose titles are of long standing.

the glory, of God that he be excluded from this church until God gives him repentance."

It seems that "Brother" Harrison was given to intemperate habits because the records of March 27 of the same year disclose that a complaint was lodged against him for intoxication. It is stated that on that occasion there was an investigation, but that the church "received satisfaction from the Brother's acknowledgements."

The minutes of the same day also show that failure to attend services was considered in the nature of a misdemeanor. One notation says: "An inquiry made by the church respecting the nonattendance of Brother Logan Kindall and Sister Russia. Brother Abraham Hackleman was appointed to cite them to attend meeting."

The question of whether deacons and elders should be ordained in the church agitated the members, according to the minutes of January 20 and February 17, 1927. It was decided that deacons should be ordained, but "that the church finds no scripture to prove the ordination of elders more than once."

It seems that "Sister" Margaret Kitchen was guilty of something in the eyes of the church because the minutes of April 15, 1926 say that she "came forward and gave satisfaction to the church and was restored to fellowship again."

A motion that the church make inquiry into the standing of "Brother" W. Pherson was considered at the meeting Oct. 15, 1925 and it was decided he should be requested to attend the next meeting. At the next session Nov. 19 "Brother" Pherson gave satisfaction for nonattendance. At this same meeting the question of dividing the church because of some difference of opinion was considered and it was decided that one side should meet at the meeting house and the other at "Brother Jones' on the head of Garrison creek."

On January 15, 1925 "Brother" Reuben Sailors was ordered to attend the next meeting. The minutes of each monthly meeting up until July 16 refer to the citation regarding "Brother" Sailors and say it was postponed until the next meeting. At this meeting it was decided that the church should disown him for not attending.

Dancing and frolicking were other things banned by the church, it seems. The minutes of August 21, 1924 say: "Brother Logan Kindall laid in a complaint against himself for amusing himself in merry company, in frolicking and dancing." He was reinstated in good standing after several questions were asked.

Conrad Sailor wrote a letter to the church and it is recorded in the minutes of June 19, 1924 that "he confesses his faults with grief and the church decided to bear with Brother Sailor."

There was a division of opinion among the people regarding religious ideas as early as May 15, 1924 for the church resolved to disown "their brethren on Williams Creek in consequence of their ideas and intended practice of communion." The names of the ones disowned are given.

At the meeting January 17, 1924, a complaint was laid against "Brother" Conrad Sailor "for unadvisedly whipping a man at Rushville." "Brother" Sailor was ordered to appear before the church and explain.

At the regular monthly session of the church on March 1, 1923 the question as to whether members should be excluded for communing with any other society was debated and it was finally decided they should not, this conclusion being reached:

"We believe that there is many pious Christians who differ with us and that all believers are one in Christ Jesus and such have a right to all the ordinances of His house, and we are so far from excluding any of our members for communing where they have fellowship that we think it their privilege to do and we have agreed to invite all such as such sustain the character of God's children to commune with us, and now dear brethren, we have given you a statement of our situation and we do most sincerely desire your Christian love and fellowship, yet we can not think of giving up our Christian liberties and if you can not follow us we hope that the Lord will direct your conduct towards us."

EATING WHITE BREAD IS HABIT

Barnard Says It Is Not a Necessity
And Yet It Will Be Hard to Get Away From

URGES ECONOMICAL USE OF IT

Is A Staple Food and Its Absence
Will Fail to Satisfy Everyone,
He Says

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Dr. H. E. Barnard, state food commissioner in speaking on economy in the use of wheat and wheat products today said that he was not urging people to give up using wheat bread for a week, or even a meal; but to be economical in its use and not wasteful. Barnard's statement follows:

"White bread at every meal is a habit, not a necessity and yet the habit is so firm that it will not be an easy thing even when we know that we must deny ourselves so that our soldiers may be fed to do without toast for breakfast, sandwiches for lunch and crisp slices of Vienna bread for dinner. The state food administrator of Massachusetts is not advocating one wheatless meal a day and is to be content to simply urge the economical use of white bread. He goes the whole way and his recommendations to hotels, clubs, cafes and restaurants is to cut out white bread altogether for a full week. The success of his war policy will only be known when the work is done.

"White bread is a staple food, and a breadless table will no doubt fail to satisfy everyone, yet anyone who will not agree to sacrifice his fondness for white bread will show himself to be unpleasantly selfish and unpatriotic. There are so many substitutes for white bread—rye bread, corn bread, of many kinds, brown bread and oatmeal muffins that no one should have any difficulty in forgetting for the present that there is any such thing as white bread. It ought to be especially easy to change one's eating habits now when such delectable foods as corn on cob, butter beans, tomatoes, beans and all the other products of the garden are so abundant and so cheap.

"It is one thing not to talk of a war diet and personal sacrifice when we merely omitting a single article of food from our ample dietary, and quite another when bread and almost every other necessity is secured by card in France and Germany."

FINED $1 AND COSTS FOR COURT CONTEMPT

Divorced Wife of George Hoffman
is Ordered by Judge to Surrender Child

BEARING ON STEVENS' CASE

Mrs. Bessie Hoffman, divorced wife of George Hoffman of Connersville and a niece of Omar and Manfred Stevens, was fined one dollar and costs in the Payette circuit court Thursday for contempt of court in failing to return her child to George Hoffman as provided in the divorce decree. She was also ordered to surrender the child.

Immediately after the finding of Judge Springer a motion was filed by lawyers for Mrs. Hoffman asking that the divorce decree be modified and a hearing on this motion will be held Oct. 22. It was this child that Hoffman went to see last spring at the Stevens home, which led to a fight resulting the Stevens brothers being arrested for assault and battery with intent to kill.

Amusements

The Princess offers, "The Range Boss," for the program tonight. Jack Gardner and Ruth King are featured and it is said to be a fine romance of a cowboy and an eastern heiress. There is plenty of action and big situations. In addition the comedy, "Perils of Pauline," will be shown, in which Pinks and Jabs are featured. Monday Alice Brady will be seen in the feature drama, "The Divorce Game."

PLAYS LOTTERY ON WOUNDS; WINS

Italian Soldier, Spent Forty Cents
After Consulting Soothsaying
Books

HE FOUND MAGIC FORMULA

Didn't Want It For Himself But Wife
and Kiddies—Played and
Went to Carso

By JOHN H. HARLEY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 9. (By Mail)—A black-haired soldier dropped into the state lottery office at Brescia, hesitating before the busy clerk vainly trying to think of "lucky numbers."

"O, play, on your wound, it may bring you luck," advised the impatient clerk, glancing at the silver tape on the soldier's arm which indicated that he had been "wounded at the front."

The clerk got out the soothsaying book and between them they interpreted the wound in "lucky numbers." The date and zone of the battle, the nature of the bullet and the feelings of its victim, all had their numerical equivalents.

"I don't want to win for myself," the soldier remarked. "I'm thinking of Maria and the youngsters. Think of what the money would mean to them. Madonna mia, bless my numbers."

The soldier risked forty cents on the magic formula, far more than he could really afford. "Say, just jot my numbers down and send my winnings to my wife and babies, if I don't come back from the Carso," he told the lotteryman. The clerk jotted the soldier's numbers in a note book and turned to several talkative peasants.

The drawings were later held under the eye of Italian officialdom. The next day the clerk remembered the soldier and referring to his note-book discovered that the wounded stranger had won $5,000.

FRIENDS READY TO HELP HIM

Squire James Kratzer, who mysteriously left the city some time Wednesday night, has not gone to stay, for in a letter written to his daughter, Mrs. Fred McCloud, of this city, who is employed in Connersville, he stated he would be back.

His friends are at a loss as to why he should leave so mysteriously. In the letter to his daughter, which was mailed from Indianapolis, Squire Kratzer expresses regret at not getting to see her before he left and told her he was sorry, but says he will see her when he gets back. He was seen in Columbus, Ind., by a local man Thursday.

His friends declare they would have come to his aid had he made known that he wanted anything.

SLACKERS TRUST EXPLODED

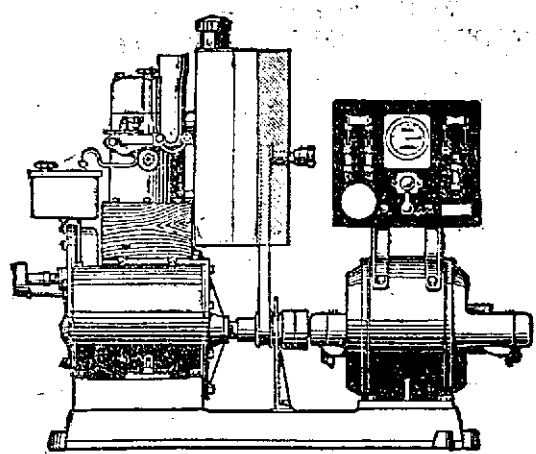

Hunchback Paid to Obtain Exemption for Men

London, Sept. 27. (By Mail)—The War Office has uncovered a unique method of evading military service.

When Sidney Brew, a young commission merchant, was arrested on another charge he was found to have a certificate of exemption certifying that he was a hunchback. He admitted that a group of men had hired a hunch-back to present himself for each of them as their summons came to procure exemption certificates.

Meantime the hunch-back joined the navy and drowned in a ship sunk by a submarine. The War Office is searching for the other members of the evading group.
